September 10, 2017
Ezekiel 33:7-9; Romans 13:8-10; Matthew 18:15-20

BOUND TOGETHER IN CHRIST
Do Christians correct and care for each other? Around the world, we are bound together in Christ Jesus. We are not perfect, but we ought to urge each other to better follow the Lord. In Christ, we can reconcile and be reconciled. Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbor; it is the answer to all the commandments. When we gather in his name, the Lord is with us. If the Lord is with us, who can be against us?

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
September 17, 2017
Sirach 27:30—28:7; Romans 14:7-9; Matthew 18:21-35

MERCY
Resentment, anger and vengeance are all human feelings—and even understandable at times. But God calls us to look beyond our problems and to live for the Lord, to belong to the Lord. The prayer Jesus gave us teaches us to forgive those who trespass against us. We ask to be forgiven, and God's mercy extends when we have sinned. Learning to live with God's gracious mercy and being merciful to each other are the keys to a successful Christian life. Are you ready for mercy?

Letter to Parishioners from Bishop Robert W. Muench

Your pastor will be attending two mandatory Priest Retreats from Tuesday, September 19, through Thursday, September 21, and Monday, October 2 through Thursday, October 5. The September retreat is the Louisiana Priests Convention held every four years which will take the place of the Diocesan Annual Priests' Formation Days held in January. The October retreat is the Clergy Fall Retreat mandatory every other year. I know this may affect certain regular ministries, such as daily Mass and funerals. The daily Mass schedule in your parish can be adjusted as determined by your parish priest to meet the needs of your parish during these retreats. While this is a sacrifice, I consider the sacrifice worth making. Regarding funerals, I would ask that funerals be scheduled either before the retreat begins or after, but not during, the scheduled retreat days. If this is completely impossible, one of the deacons from the diocese can provide the needed funeral rites, namely the vigil wake, funeral without Mass and rite of committal. If a parish cannot provide a deacon to lead these services, Deacon John Veron has agreed to coordinate finding deacons who are willing to help. In this case, a parish staff member would contact the Office of the Vicar General and Deacon Veron will assist in providing a deacon for that special need.

Over the years attendance at our annual Priest Retreats has been remarkably consistent. Pressing ministry could compromise and jeopardize our commitment to these special opportunities. I hope this letter helps you understand and support our priests with their commitment to their ministry. I ask that you pray for our priests and our diocese these days, as they pray for you as well.

In summary, every priest of the diocese is expected to be present and take part in these retreats. I appreciate so much your affirmation and encouragement of our clergy who give so much of their lives for our diocese. May God be generous in leading us into the future with hope.

+Bishop Robert W. Muench
Bishop of Baton Rouge on behalf of the Diocese of Baton Rouge

There will be a second collection at all masses September 16/17 at all masses for to help those affected by Hurricane Harvey.

A VOCATION VIEW-Sept. 10-As a parish family, and in your individual families, pray that God will bless us with an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Sept. 17-Jesus continues to draw those who believe. Our world is hungry and thirsty for the Bread of Life. Will you share your faith? Consider being a sister, brother, priest or deacon, call Fr. Andrew Merrick at 225-336-8778, amerrick@diobr.org.
