Stewardship of Prayer

As We Have for Generations, We Pray Together

We welcome everyone to this final Stewardship of Prayer weekend, a celebration of our commitments to pray as members of our parishes. Thank you so much for your willing involvement and your desire to pray throughout the year to come. At Masses this weekend, you will receive a personal prayer commitment card. There are many ways to pray, alone or with others, in service to God with generous hearts. When you've had the chance to complete your personal commitment card, please set aside a convenient place in your home and keep it close at hand. That way, you can regularly review your commitment and, as faithful Catholics have done for generations, be reminded of God's goodness. And finally... A man was being pursued by a roaring, hungry lion. Feeling the beast's hot breath on his neck and knowing his time was short, he prayed as he ran. He cried out in desperation, "O Lord, please make this lion a Christian." Within seconds, the frightened man became aware the lion had stopped the chase. When he looked behind him, he found the lion kneeling, lips moving in obvious prayer. Greatly relieved at this turn of events—and desirous of joining the lion in meditation, he approached the king of the jungle. When he was near enough, he heard the lion praying, "And bless, O Lord, this food for which I'm exceedingly grateful." God answers all prayers – in His way and in His time!
